There is in the southeast part of Dooly, fifteen or twenty miles from Vienna, peculiar pond, which periodically lose peculiar pond, which periodically loses its entire water through an orifice in the bottom of the pond. This pond covers three or four acres, and every year in May, within a few days of the same time, a peculiar noise is heard, and a few days after the water begins to escape below and continues till all is gone. There is a quantity of fish in the pond and many are caught during this escape, and the people of that section have a fish feast.—Dooly County Vindicator. -{Dooly County Vindicator.
